

University of Washington English Language Faculty

AFT Local 6486, AFL-CIO

- Are over 65 full-time faculty, teaching English to students in a wide variety of self-sustaining programs
- Were certified by the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) in March, 2011
- Teach approximately 3500 students from over 30 countries annually
- Train International Teaching Assistants (ITAs), many from Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics
- Provide training and support for Graduate Students in the Masters in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (MATESOL) Program, English Department
- Teach in programs in conjunction with many UW departments, schools and branches, including the Business School, Law School, School of Medicine, and UW Bothell
- Attract international students whose tuition helps support the UW's operating and educational costs
- Provide training and support for over 100 volunteer interns annually in local businesses
- Contribute, through the living costs of the international students they serve, $12 million to the local economy annually

University of Washington English Language Faculty
AFT Local 6486, AFL-CIO

Richard Moore, President; richm@uw.edu

Rozanna Carosella, Vice-President; rococa@uw.edu

Peter Messinger, Vice-President; ptrm@uw.edu